PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1895.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1903.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

JES' FORE CHRISTMAS.

Father calls me William, sister calls me Will.
Mother calls me Willie—but the fellers call me Bill!
Mighty glad I ain't a girl—ruther be a boy Without them sashes, curls, an' things that's worn by Fauntleroy!
Love to chawnk green apples an' go swimmin' in the lake—
Hate to take the castor-ile they give f'r belly-ache!
Most all the time the hull year roun' there ain't no flies on me,
But jes' fore Christmas I'm as good as I kin be!
Got a yeller dog named Sport—sick 'im on the cat;
Fust thing she knows she doesn't know where she is at!
Got a clipper sled, an' when us boys go out to slide Long comes the grocery cart an' we all hook a ride!
But, sometimes, when the grocery man is worried
and cross,
He reaches at me with his whip, an' larrups up his boss;
An' then I laff and holler: "Oh you never teched
me!"
But jes' fore Christmas I'm as good as I kin be!
Gran'ma says she hopes when I git to be a man
I'll be a missioner like her oldest brother Dan,
As wuz et up by the cannibals that lives in Cey-lon's isle,
Where every prospect pleases an' only man is vile!
But gran'ma she had never been to see a Wild West show,
Or read the life uv Daniel Boone, or else I guess
she'd know
That Buffalo Bill an' cowboys is good enough f'r
me—
Excep' jes' fore Christmas, when I'm good as I kin be!
Then ol' Sport he hangs aroun', so solemn like an' still—
His eyes they seem a-sayin': "Wat's er matter, little Bill!"
The cat she sneaks down off her perch, a-wonderin' what's become Uv them two enemies of her'n that used ter make things hum!
But I am so perlitte and stick so earnest like biz,
That mother says to father: "How improved our Willie is!"
But father, havin' been a boy hisself, suspicious
me,
When jes' fore Christmas, I'm as good as I kin be."
For Christmas with its lots an' lots uv candies,
cakes and toys,
Wuz made, they say, f'r proper kids and not f'r naughty boys!
So wash yer face and bresh yer hair, an' mind your p's and q's,
And don't bust out yer panialoons, an' don't wear
out yer shoes.
Say yessum to the ladies, an' yessum to the men,
An' when they's company don't pass yer plate f'r pie again;
But, thinkin' uv the things you'd like to see upon
that tree,
Jes' fore Christmas be as good as you kin be!

something doing in Maysville are invited to meet with all G. A. R. men at Joseph Heiser Post Room, Cox Building, next Monday night, to ar-

CAUTION:

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its popularity all these years, you will be thankful that we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficulty expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catharrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Ad-

BELKNAP'S ADMIRABLE STATEMENT!

Louisville Herald.
A reporter of The Herald called on Colonel Belknap yesterday to ask if he cared to say anything about Governor Beckham's question at Winchester whether he would pardon Powers if elected Governor.
"Yes," said Colonel Belknap, "I am quite ready to say something about it. I am perfectly willing that the people of Kentucky should know exactly my views and intentions with respect to the great office of Governor and its responsibilities. If you will sit down I will dictate my reply, so that it shall not be misunderstood."

BECKHAM'S BROKEN PROMISES.
The statement Colonel Belknap dictated is as follows:
"Mr. Beckham, in opening his campaign, has seen fit to go into the question of pardons. He has made a declaration and a promise and demands that I shall do the like. He specifically promises that he will not pardon Jett and White, and by implication promises that he will not pardon Powers, Howard and Youtsey. I shall not under any circumstances enter into competition with Mr. Beckham in the making of promises.
"He has made such promises before, and has broken them. When he was a candidate three years ago, under exactly similar circumstances, in the most solemn way he promised the state that he would never pardon any man convicted of murder by a fair Jury.

HE OUGHT NOT TO HAVE BEEN MADE.
"He made that promise on the stump and broke it in the office. I hope, in some instances at least, he was justified in breaking it. He ought never to have made it. The law and the charity of human nature intended the prerogative of clemency to be conscientiously exercised in cases where justice otherwise would fail. But Mr. Beckham has broken his promise so often in fact as well as in spirit that there is nothing left of it, and now he makes a new one in its place.

WILL MAKE NO PROMISE.
"For myself, I will make no promise as to how I will decide any case until I have read the record and heard the facts. No decent candidate for a Judgeship will promise before he is elected how he will decide a particular case. The granting or refusal of a pardon is, at least in part, a judicial act.

"But I will promise this, and the promise shall be kept. If I am elected Governor of Kentucky, and any application for pardon is made to me, I will give it the fullest consideration. No matter what the condition, race, color, religion or politics of the applicant, if I believe it to be a proper case for pardon, and my conscience approves, I will issue the pardon.

NO PARDONS FOR POLITICAL REASONS.
"I will not pardon Powers, or any one else, for a political reason. Proud as I should be to be elected Governor of this Commonwealth, I would rather lose the office than to feel that I had staked the life or liberty of even the meanest of my fellow citizens on a game of political ambition.

"That is all I have to say on the subject," said Colonel Belknap when he had concluded. "I don't see how I could say more or less."

River News

The gauge reads 7.5 at this point and falling.

The Tacoma from Pomeroy will be down tonight.

The Snagboat Woodruff cleaned the channel at Manchester of several ugly obstructions.

The Ohio and tributaries are generally falling and it won't be long before the river is back to its low stage again.

It isn't always the loudest "cousin" man on a steamboat who is the best Mate. A good Mate never swears.

The Henry M. Stanley will be up tonight for Charleston, taking freight for Pomeroy and points above that port.

The Aberdeen sandbar is now the bathing beach for this city, quite a number of ladies and gentlemen going there almost daily.

Captain Charlie Hook has been placed in command of the Tom Lysle. He succeeds Captain Hays, who is Master of the Government dredgeboat General Theodore Schwann.

Coal at ten cents a bushel is sold to Uniontown people from the wrecks of barges sunk by the Finley early in the summer, and there is good demand for it. Although workmen have been busy for some time getting out the coal there is little depletion in the amount in the sunken barges.

New steamboats are never launched or make their trial trips on Friday. Superstitious rivermen say it is bad luck. One of the longest-lived and luckiest steamboats ever run was launched from the Ways at the old Howard Shipyard on Friday. She made her trial trip on Friday and left on her first business trip on Friday.

Two United States barges were launched Saturday, making a fleet of eight barges now ready to be delivered at Madison and Jeffersonville to United States Engineer Adams. Other boats are waiting their chances to get on the Ways for repairs. One hundred men are employed on the Ways and in the yard, and work for an additional fifty if they could be found.

The capitalization of the Pittsburgh Coal Company consists of $32,000,000 common stock, $32,000,000 preferred stock and $6,000,000 debenture bonds. It acreage, plant and equipment are valued at $77,000,000, and its total assets at $87,000,000. Adding the $45,000,000 assets of the River Coal Company, the combination of interests represents a total of $132,000,000.

The machinery now in the towboat Gleaner, at Pittsburgh, is over sixty years old, having been built in the early '40's for the packet steamer Simon Kenton, which was built for the Cincinnati and Maysville trade. The machinery was transferred to the John A. Porter, and, after wearing the boat out, was placed in the Sidney Dillon of the St. Louis and Mississippi Valley Line fleet. When the Dillon was wrecked the machinery was placed in the Gleaner, and is said to be in good condition yet. The Gleaner is owned by the People's Coal Company of Pittsburgh, and is considered one of its best boats.

The New Orleans Picayune says: "The steamboats are having their annual trouble with roustabouts, but this year are getting hit harder than usual, owing to the scarcity of that class of labor on the river. The blacks are now demanding and getting $75 per month from the tributary boats, which usually pay from $40 to $60, and from the coast packets are asking from $90 up. Yesterday the men demanded of the Mabel Comeaux $110 and all day, which is equivalent to two days' pay for one day's labor, or at the rate of over $200 per month. Capt. Comeaux, not being quite ready to turn over the gross receipts of his boat to the roustabouts, very properly postponed her departure."

The Memphis Commercial-Appeal says: "The steamboats out of Memphis always do a big business in the whisky line, remarked a steamboat Pilot yesterday. This business is almost exclusive. There are few, if any, mail orders in the cities. The people wait for the boats and purchase their jugs. I think the business is increasing. In the holiday season you would be surprised at the great volume of business done in this line. Hundreds of jugs are carried by every boat to supply the great demand. If the bars on the steamboats depended on the retail trade on the boats, by the passengers, they would lose money. You know it costs a saloonman nearly $5,000 per year for the bar privileges on a steamboat. His license and the other usual expenses come extra. The jug trade is equal to that of a small wholesale whisky house."

A Remarkable Record.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

A Sheriff's posse, assisted by citizens generally, is searching for a burglar who shot Colonel Mordecai Williams at his home at Normal, near Ashland.

Mr. Frederick L. Hoffman of Cincinnati and Miss Alice F. Kirk of the East End will be married at 3 o'clock p. m. yesterday at the residence of the bride's parents, Dr. Evans officiating.

Y. Nina Kuchi and wife of Lexington were registered at the Central this morning. Mr. Nina Kuchi is a Japanese and was en route to enter Yale College. His wife is a very wealthy Bourbon lady.

MANTELL.

Mr. Robert B. Mantell will appear in Maysville at the Washington Opera-house Monday, September 14th, in "The Light of Other Days." Imagine a beautiful persecuted heroine, a gallant unconquerable hero, a vengeful lady who loves him, a jolly weak-minded old rone who fears him, and two most despicable villains who hate him, and a dozen or so other characters—then think what complications must surely arise. And there are plenty of them in this charming romance of 1793 and 1810. Seats on sale at Ray's Drugstore Saturday morning.

TALKED TOO MUCH!

A Maysville Man Ran Amuck With the Cincinnati Police.

The Times-Star says Walter Stevens, aged 26, of this city, tested the quality of the Cincinnati Police force to his entire satisfaction Tuesday morning. He was sitting in a restaurant at Pearl and Broadway eating a lunch, when Officers Imwald and Hannakas went in to inquire the whereabouts of a man for whom they held a warrant.

Stevens overheard their inquiries and "batted in" to the conversation, opening with the remark that if the officers were in Kentucky they would not get their men so easily.

The officers did not desire trouble, which seemed to embolden him, and he became very boisterous, finally declaring that if they were in Kentucky he would kill them. They warned him to go away, but he would not and they finally attempted to put him under arrest. He resisted and Hannakas used his club, with the result that Stevens' head looked like a Hamburg steak when he was presented in Police Court.

He was fined $10 and costs on the charge of disorderly conduct.

Ask a healthy woman what she would sell her health for and she would tell you that the choicest diamonds in the world could not buy it. What use for diamond rings to emphasize the shrunken fingers, or earrings to light up the cheeks hollowed by disease?

Health is the first requisite to womanly happiness. General ill-health in women has its origin in local womanly diseases. Cure the diseases of the delicate womanly organism and the general health is perfectly restored.

The remarkable benefits experienced from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are due to this medicine's perfect cures of womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"It affords me great pleasure to be able to say a few words in regard to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' writes Mrs. Flora Ann, of Dallas, Jackson Co., Mo. 'I was tempted to try these medicines after seeing the effect upon my mother. At an early stage of married life I was greatly bothered with painful periods, also a troublesome drain which rendered me very weak and unfit for work of any kind. I began so thin there was nothing left of me but skin and bone. My husband became alarmed and got me a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription.' After he saw the wonderful effects of that one he got me two more, and after I used those up there was no more pain, and I began to gain in flesh very rapidly."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

The Genuine vs. Counterfeits.
The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S.
Ledbetter of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me."
For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles
no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.
Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

"The Longer I Live,
The More I Get."
This is unusual. The earning capacity of a man generally begins to decrease with years. But the above quotation was written of a policy of life insurance in The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. It is the striking sentence in a letter of satisfaction written by Mr. Ebe Walter, concerning a dividend received on a Fifteen-Year Distribution policy.
The entire letter which appeared in the Wilmington (Del.) News, November 21, 1902, is interesting and the policy of insurance referred to is still more so.
In writing for terms on a policy of this kind, state what you would like to receive in cash at the end of limited payment period, amount you would like your beneficiary to receive in event of your death, and give your age.

DON'T GROWL
CORN.
You needn't have corns.
Time was when you might cure part of them or partly cure any of them, but now you can easily cure all of them.
Takes a few minutes' time for two or three days; cost you 15 cents. You'll probably consider this cheap enough if the cure is guaranteed. We do guarantee Chenoweth's Corn Cure. Your money awaits you if the remedy fails, but it won't fail.
